

Sheryl Buchholtz

Intro:

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Now it is my privilege to introduce you to a tireless advocate for Jewish National Fund who is a member of the Circle of Sapphire, Negev and Century Council societies, the Makor Speakers Bureau and the New York Board of Directors.

As a successful health professional, she is a Board Certified Gerontological Registered nurse, Partner and Chief Clinical Officer at Zimmet Healthcare Services Group in New Jersey.

She is also an early graduate of the New York Cooking School and The Institute for Culinary Education and enthusiastically serves as the Chair of the Galilee Culinary Institute by JNF.

She has led several missions to Israel including 2014's Operation Protective Edge Solidarity Mission.

She is a mother to two amazing daughters and two incredible grandchildren.

Ladies and gentlemen, will you please welcome the indomitable Sheryl Buchholtz.
